

The license of Sinclair should be examined. They are abusing the public airways. We own the airwaves, not them. They should not be allowed to use corporate resources to unfairly affect the election. Why don't they play by the same rules?